The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Cathcart, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, one

one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, beg Leave to take this first Opportunity of presenting our respectful Congratulations upon the Birth of another Prince.

Attached as we are to your Majesty, no less by Love and Affection than by Principles of Duty, we most sincerely rejoice in every Event which adds to your domestick Felicity: We consider every Increase of your Royal Family as a further Security to our Religion and Liberties: And we adore that Divine Goodness which affords us the happy Prospect of those Kingdoms remaining, through the Course of Ages, under the Government of that August House, to which, under God, we are indebted for the most inestimable Blessings.

We esteem ourselves happy in being able to assure your Majesty, that the same Sentiments of Duty and Affection, which we entertain, prevail amongst the People under our Care: Unperverted, and firm in their Loyalty, they take equal Part with us in every Event which is auspicious to your Family or Government; and, with one Heart and one Voice, gratefully acknowledge the Felicity enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild, legal, and paternal Administration.

That the Great God of Heaven, by whom Kings reign, may ever keep you under His gracious Protection; that He may bless the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Family; and that, to every Circumstance of domestick and publick Prosperity, He may add the highest Spiritual and Eternal Rewards, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,
